FIRST SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges that:

CONSPIRACY TO DISTRIBUTE CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE

Introductory Allegations

1. The substance 3,4 methylenedioxy-N-methylcathinone is a synthetic cathinone which was listed by the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) as a Schedule I controlled substance on an emergency basis effective October 21, 2011. 21 CFR Part 1308.11(g)(7).
2. Synthetic cathinones are designer drugs of the phenethylamine class which are structurally and pharmacologically similar to amphetamine, 3,4-methylenedioxymethamphetamine (MDMA), cathinone and other related substances. Synthetic cathinones, including methylone, recently emerged on the United States' illicit drug market and were initially perceived as being legal alternatives to cocaine, methamphetamine, and MDMA. Prior to emergency scheduling by DEA, methylone was prohibited as a controlled substance analogue pursuant to the Controlled Substance Analog Enforcement Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-570, 100 Stat. 3207, codified at 21 U.S.C. § 813. Methylone is among the illicit drugs falsely marketed as "research chemicals," "R.C.s," "plant food," or "bath salts." Methylone is known by the street names "molly," "M-1," "rolls," "fake ecstasy" and "MDMC."

The Conspiracy

3. Beginning at a date uncertain, but at least on or about September 29, 2011, and continuing until at least on or about July 31, 2012, both dates being approximate and inclusive, in the District of Alaska and elsewhere, defendants ROBIN GATTIS, CHAD JOSEPH CAMERON, STEPHEN KIMBRELL, KEVIN RUPP, SHANE O'HARE, BREN MARX, and HAYLEE HAYS, together with other co-conspirators both known and unknown to the Grand Jury, did knowingly and intentionally combine, conspire, confederate, and agree with each other to distribute, and to possess with intent to distribute, 3,4 methylenedioxy-N-methylcathinone, its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers, in violation of Title 21 United States Code, Sections 841(a)(1), and 841(b)(1)(C).

Manner and Means of the Conspiracy

4. ROBIN GATTIS was the leader and organizer of the conspiracy. During the times relevant to this First Superseding Indictment, numerous other individuals joined the conspiracy knowing its goals and engaging in acts to further its purposes, including CAMERON, KIMBRELL, RUPP, O'HARE, MARX, HAYS and M.G.S., who is now deceased.

5. The goal of the conspiracy was to obtain the methylene powder from China and distribute it in Alaska. GATTIS was responsible for obtaining methylene powder from China, and encapsulating it for distribution in Alaska. GATTIS paid approximately $4-$6 a gram for methylene from China. GATTIS, at times assisted by J.H., M.G.S., CAMERON, and other coconspirators, then encapsulated the bulk methylene powder and sold it for $10-15 per 10-15 milligram capsule, with discounts for bulk purchases. In many instances, GATTIS gave the drugs to his closest associates, including CAMERON, RUPP and M.G.S., for a reduced rate, for free, or in tacit exchange for services such as wiring money, picking up packages of drugs, or transporting drugs. Most of the customers and other recipients receiving methylene from GATTIS were under the age of 21.

6. In or about September 2011, GATTIS learned that methylene was pending emergency scheduling. Nevertheless, he continued to import methylene from China and distribute it in Alaska, and in fact attempted to stockpile methylene in advance of the ban so that he could continue to distribute it after it became specifically illegal.

7. GATTIS regularly corresponded by email with the supplier, discussing the products, quantities, prices, and methods of shipment. GATTIS wired payments via Western Union from Alaska to China to pay for the shipments, and advised the source of the payments and relevant money transfer control number (MTCN) issued by Western Union. GATTIS wired funds himself, and also directed other members of the conspiracy, including at least two persons then under the age of 18 years, to wire, or cause to be wired, funds from Alaska to China to purchase methylene.

8. Once the source of supply received payment, the methylene was shipped from China to Alaska by common carrier. GATTIS arranged for shipments to be made to his own residence address, as well as to the addresses of other coconspirators, including O'HARE and CAMERON. Initially DHL was used, but after shipments began to be identified and intercepted by U.S. Customs and Border Protection, the conspirators began using Express Mail Service (EMS) from the U.S. Postal Service. After sending a shipment, the source emailed GATTIS the relevant DHL or EMS tracking number. This information enabled GATTIS to track the package online, and anticipate when delivery would occur.

Acts in Furtherance of the Conspiracy

9. In furtherance of the criminal conspiracy and to effect the objects thereof, in the District of Alaska and elsewhere and on or about the dates set forth below, the Defendants and other associates and co-conspirators, both known and unknown to the
