- (2012-09-26 22:48) myself: hey, sorry about that. I changed timezones today and I think I got confused last night with my flight schedule
- (2012-09-26 22:57) myself: it's actually getting late here, so I'll go to sleep soon. I should be around during your morning tomorrow, but the next 2-3 days after I'll be fairly busy. If you don't find me on here but have something to say, feel free to message me on Silk Road, or the dev forum
- (2012-09-27 21:21) myself: had a good chat with smed, don't worry about getting me up to speed on the current state of things. He says he'll have a demo of the exchange deployed on tuesday, so let's all touch base then. I'll be posting a couple of things on the dev forums tomorrow that you should look at when you get a chance as well.
